The S. S. China left Honolulu for San Francisco last Friday. As she has not had time in which to reach San Francisco her passenger list is not reported. She will reach San Francisco next Friday. There will naturally be the utmost astonishment among people aboard her when they reach San Francisco and learn of the disaster. Considerable worry is felt by local people having friends or relatives on the China, as it is doubtful if the latter can secure living accommodations after reaching the stricken city.

clair's testimony was that the man with
